Errata to Printed Catalog

Revisions to the most recently printed catalog. Note that most of these changes have been corrected in the online version of the catalog found here.

Significant Changes

1. The course "Introduction to Windows 11" was omitted. The information for this course is:

INTRODUCTION TO WINDOWS 11

Date: March 21

Time: 2:00 - 4:00 PM

Location: Business & Education Building, Room 136

Cost: $15

Instructor: Ralph Dale. See "Exploring Windows 10" on pg. 13 for bio.

Description: On October 5, 2021, Microsoft released Windows 11, the newest version of the Windows operating system. This lecture course will show the new features in Windows 11 and how they changed from Windows 10. You will learn about the new hardware requirements (and why you might have to buy a new computer), the new look, the new tool for arranging windows on the screen, the new Start menu, and the major revision to the Settings app. If you plan to purchase a new computer soon, we'll discuss the hardware requirements needed to meet Windows 11 minimum standards.

2. Page 22-23, under TV STREAMING, the Description: paragraph should have an additional sentence: "The class size is limited to 30 students."
