APRIL, 2023

President's Message

Greetings,

April marks the last month of classes for the spring semester. And as our semester winds down, I welcome your opinions as to your level of satisfaction with the quality of the courses offered, and whether we have met your expectations. Your comments are very important to our efforts to make improvements in all areas of study.

As I mentioned last month, the Earl S. Kauffman Recognition Day Luncheon will be held on Wednesday, April 26 at noon in the Etherredge Center lobby. Our guest speaker will be Chancellor, Dan Heimmermann, who will provide an update on USCA campus developments. If you haven't already, please send your RSVP to Taryn Wallace at the External Programs office before the April 15 cutoff date. Taryn can be reached at taryn.wallace@usca.edu. For members of the Center for Lifelong Learning there is no cost to attend, however, there is a small fee for non-member guests to attend.

Once again, thank you for your interest in the Center for Lifelong Learning, and joining us for this semester's learning adventure.

Sincerely,

David Tavernier, CLL President
pres@aikenlearning.org

The agenda includes the presentation of the annual Earl F. Kauffman award to an individual that has made significant contributions to the advancement of the Center and its goals.

The keynote speaker will be USC Aiken Chancellor Daniel J. Heimmermann.

Academy members can attend at no charge, (nominal fee for non-members) but must reserve their spots no later than April 15 to permit appropriate arrangements to be made with the caterer.

Catalog Updates

The following changes to the printed catalog have been announced recently. Please be sure your copy of the catalog reflects these changes. A cumulative list of all changes is available on the Center's website (click here).

Two Eminent 18th-Century Augustans: George Walton and Ezekiel Harris (starting 3/30) – withdrawn due to instructor unavailability

Pollinators and Their Host Plants (starting 4/11) – withdrawn due to instructor unavailability..

Courses and Events Beginning in April

Many of our classes fill quickly. Before attending please pre-register to assure there is a place for you.

Click each item name to access its full description from the CLL website listings (aikenlearning.org/courses.html).

Full course descriptions may be also found:

- in the downloadable catalog (aikenlearning.org/catalog.html)
- in the printed catalog

To enroll, register online at aikenlearning.org/online.html or return the form in the catalog along with any required payment. For questions, contact USC Aiken Department of Continuing Education (803-641-3563 / info@aikenlearning.org).

RSVP Closing Date for Kauffman Luncheon Is Approaching

The Earl F. Kauffman Remembrance Day Luncheon will be held April 26. Invitations were sent to Academy members in March.

Dr. Kauffman

This event is held annually in remembrance of Earl F. Kauffman, one of the founders of a precursor to today's Center for Lifelong Learning, the Academy for Lifelong Learning, back in 1989. An endowment from the Kauffman family helps to finance the event.
